AGENT OF WGAW

Duration: Registration is valid for a five-year period. You hereby authorize the Guild to destroy the manuscript without notice to you upon expiration of five years from the effective date of this receipt. You may renew the registration for additional five year periods. Renewals will be accepted up to 90 days prior to the expiration of the current registration. A grace period will be extended allowing late renewals up to 90 days following expiration of the current registration. All renewal requests must be accompanied by payment of the registration fee then in effect.

Access To Material: Registered material may not be withdrawn. Copies of material may be purchased upon written request by one or more of the listed authors, identified by photo ID. In the event an author is deceased, proof of death and consent of the representative of the heirs and/or estate must be presented in order to obtain a copy of the material.

Safekeeping: Registration is a service. Its purpose is to assist writers in establishing completion and possession of literary property. The Guild assumes that you have retained, and you acknowledge that you have retained, a copy of this manuscript. In the event the deposited manuscript is lost, damaged or destroyed by reason of the Guild's failure to exercise reasonable care or any other cause whatsoever, it is agreed that the declared value of the manuscript shall be $10.00. Damages for such loss or destruction of the manuscript shall be limited to its declared value.

Entire Agreement: The provisions printed here constitute the entire registration agreement. No Guild employee is authorized to modify this agreement or to make other representations binding on the Guild.
