

Honorable Council
In charge of the National Prize of Sciences and Fine Arts 2012

Mexico

June 5, 2012

Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome the proposition of the Mexican Institute of Cinematography (IMCINE) that Paul Leduc be named candidate for the National Prize of Sciences and Fine Arts, in the field of Fine Arts.

During his entire career, Paul Leduc has demonstrated an undeniable talent as well as a great coherence of language and content, turning cinema into an instrument for thought and support of social changes.

His work is already a part of Mexican and world-wide cultural heritage and the Berlin International Film Festival is proud to have had the chance to present three of his films in the festival.

Therefore, with this letter we would like to express our agreement in proposing filmmaker Paul Leduc Rosenzweig for the National Arts Prize 2012 in the field of Fine Arts.

With best regards

Festival Director
